ORDER OF CONNEXIONAL COLLECTIONS.*

Resolved,—That the Connexional Funds shall be taken up in the following order, viz. :—

1. CHURCH RELIEF FUND—In the month of July.
2. CONTINGENT FUND—In the months of September and March.
3. SUPERANNUATION FUND—In the month of November : December.
4. VICTORIA COLLEGE FUND—In the month of December.

STANDING RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved,—That it shall be required of every Financial Secretary, either by himself or by a proxy, to meet the Treasurers of the several Connexional Funds, to report the receipts of their respective Districts, on Tuesday, at two o'clock, P.M., the day before the annual meeting of the Conference

Collections for Connexional Funds.

Resolved,—That it is the judgment of this Conference that when collections for connexional purposes are appointed to be taken in any of our churches, the whole of such collections throughout the day shall be appropriated to the respective Funds to which they are related, without any deduction for the Circuit, or any Trust, or other Fund.

Superannuated Ministers' Fund.

Resolved,—That whereas the rule requires that all widows, claimants on the Superannuated Ministers' Fund, shall be members of our Church: therefore, it shall be the duty of the Chairman of each Annual District Meeting to make enquiries into the case of widows residing within their respective bounds, as to their membership, and report the fact annually to the Conference.

Income of Domestic Missions.

Resolved,—That the Financial District Meeting shall examine into the circumstances and probable income of Domestic Missions, in the same way as in respect to Circuits, and suggest the amount that should be appropriated for the support or assistance of such Missions.

Chairmen and Domestic Missions.

Resolved,—That the Chairmen of Districts forward to the Missionary Secretaries the amount recommended by the several September Financial District Meetings for the Domestic Missions, as soon as practicable after the close of each meeting.

Preachers Attending College.

Resolved,—That in all cases when Preachers, who have travelled four years, are then allowed by the Conference to attend College, their reception into full connexion, and their ordination, are thereby deferred.

Relating to the Book Room.

Resolved,—That every Minister and Preacher is henceforth peremptorily required to settle his account with the Book Steward, at or before the Meeting of Conference.

Resolved,—That in the case of any Minister or Preacher who is indebted the amount of $100 to the Book Room, the Book Steward shall be authorized to draw on the Treasurer of any Connexional Funds on which that brother may have a claim, to the amount of not more than 25 per cent. of his claim annually, until his debt is paid; and that a like proportion prevail when the indebtedness is larger than the sum named.

Resolved,—That the brethren indebted to the Book Room, they not being claimants on the Connexional Funds, be required to settle all overdue accounts.

Probationers.

Resolved,—That any Probationer, assisted by the Educational Fund, who, within the period of ten years after Ordination, may wish to withdraw from the Conference, shall be required to refund the amount of aid given him before receiving a Certificate of Standing, provided always that this requirement shall not apply to those who retire from ill health.

Resolved,—That this Conference requires Candidates for our Ministry to preach a Trial Sermon before the District Meeting by which they are recommended, or before a Committee appointed by the District Meeting, who shall report their opinion of the sermon, and embody it in the recommendation of such Candidate to the Conference.

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved,—That the Educational Fund collection be suspended for the present year, and that a collection in aid of the annual expenditure of Victoria College be taken up instead thereof.

The Committee recommend the Conference to enjoin upon all its ministers and preachers to make an earnest appeal in all our congregations in behalf of the Educational Collection, and to ask specifically for an increase of that collection to an amount one-third the sum received during the past year; and that in any case where the collection falls short of the required sum, steps be taken by the Superintendent to meet the deficiency.

RESOLUTIONS RE-AFFIRMED.

Sabbath Observance.

1. Resolved,—That believing in the universal and perpetual obligation of the Sabbath, and regretting any laxity in opinion or practice which may prevail, we feel it our duty distinctly to avow our firm belief in its sanctity, in the necessity of its strict observance, and in the untold benefits resulting to the community from its establishment.

2. Resolved,—That we strongly disapprove of the practice of encouraging or allowing places to be opened on the Sabbath, in the vicinity of our Camp-Meetings, for the sale of groceries or provisions of any kind; and we would recommend our brethren to discountenance such places, and, if need be, to carry out, mildly but firmly, the existing enactments of the civil law against them.

Union of Methodist Bodies.

Resolved,—That the Conference re-affirms its resolution of 1866 on Methodist Union, viz. :—

1. That this Conference cordially reiterates the expression of its conviction as to the desirableness and importance of a union of all the Methodist bodies in Canada, who believe the same doctrines, sing the same hymns, have the same form of worship, the same love-feasts, the same prayer and class-meetings, and the same general rules of Society.

2. That the Conference re-appoint a committee, consisting of an equal number of ministers and laymen, to confer with any similar committee or committees appointed by other Methodist bodies, on the subject of union. and report to the next Conference.

3. That the committee be composed of the following brethren: The Ex-President, Co-Delegate, and Secretary of the Conference; the Revs. Drs. Wood, Green, and Ryerson; the Hons. James Ferrier, Billa Flint, and J. C. Aikins, members of the Legislative Council; Edward Jackson, Esq., of Hamilton, John Macdonald, Esq., of Toronto, and Edwin Chown, Esq., of Kingston.

Temperance.

1. That this Conference earnestly recommends some form of Temperance effort in connection with all our Sabbath Schools, and urges on all Superintendents and Teachers the propriety of placing in the hands of the children such books and tracts as will serve to inform them on the subject of Temperance, and guard our youth against the pernicious drinking practices which now prevail to an alarming extent.

2. That this Conference earnestly entreats all ministers and preachers, as far as their special duties will allow, and all the members of our churches and congregations, to render all possible aid in the attainment of a revival of sound Temperance principles as auxiliary to the spread and growth of vital godliness.

MINUTES OF CONFERENCE

TAKEN IN THE

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH, ADELAIDE STREET,
TORONTO, ONTARIO.

JUNE, 1870.

THE FORTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada, began in the Adelaide Street Church, in the City of Toronto, at 9 o'clock, a.m., on WEDNESDAY, June 1st, 1870.

The Rev. WILLIAM MORLEY PUNSHON, M.A., President for 1869, in the Chair.

The PRESIDENT gave out the 482nd hymn. The SECRETARY read the 40th chapter of Isaiah, and the 21st chapter of the Gospel by Matthew, and the Revs. Dr. WOOD and EDWARD H. DEWART led in prayer.

The Secretaries of Districts reported the names of the Ministers appointed to attend the Conference. The retiring Secretary called the roll, and two hundred and thirty-five Ministers answered to their names.

The SECRETARY read the following extract from the reply of the English Conference to the last Address of the Canada Conference:—"We cheerfully leave to the assembled brethren the choice of the President of your next Conference. The Co-Delegate will, according to the terms of Union, be appointed by the President so elected."

The Conference proceeded accordingly to elect a President, and the Rev. WILLIAM MORLEY PUNSHON, M.A., was chosen by an almost unanimous vote.

The Rev. ALEXANDER SUTHERLAND was elected Secretary.

The PRESIDENT addressed the Conference, and afterwards appointed the Rev. EPHRAIM EVANS, D.D., (who had been nominated by the Conference of 1869), Co Delegate for the present year.

The Co-DELEGATE briefly addressed the Conference.

It was then moved by the Rev. Dr. RYERSON, seconded by the Rev. JAMES ELLIOTT, Ex-President, supported by the Rev. Dr. WOOD, and

Resolved,—That the cordial thanks of the Members of this Conference, collectively and individually, be hereby presented to the Rev WILLIAM MORLEY PUNSHON, M.A., our honoured and beloved President, for his extensive and most efficient labours throughout Canada during the past year. We deem it our duty gratefully to place on record that while Mr. Punshon has largely promoted the financial, spiritual and general interests of the Church by his powerful ministrations and addresses, his wise and affectionate counsels, he has personally contributed to our benevolent Institutions a much larger sum than the salary and allowances provided for him by the Church—thus rendering gratuitously his laborious services to the great work of God in which we are engaged. We commend this unprecedented and unparalleled liberality of our President to the attention, and, as far as possible, to the imitation of every ministerial and lay member of our Church; and we earnestly pray that Mr. Punshon may be long spared in health and vigour to bless mankind in the exercise of his eminent and sanctified gifts and acquirements.

The Resolution, on being put by the Co-DELEGATE, was unanimously and cordially adopted by the Conference.

Votes of Thanks were also tendered to the Rev. GEORGE DOUGLAS, LL.D., Ex-Co-Delegate; the Rev. CHARLES LAVELL, M.A., Ex-Secretary; and the Revs. WILLIAM SCOTT and WILLIAM S. GRIFFIN, Ex-Assistant Secretaries, for their services during the past year.

The SECRETARY nominated the Revs. WILLIAM SCOTT and JOHN SHAW, Assistant Secretaries; and the Rev. EDWARD B. RYCKMAN, Journal Secretary. The nominations were confirmed.

The Rev. CHARLES LAVELL, M.A., and the Rev. I. B. HOWARD, were appointed Official Letter Writers during the present Conference.

The Revs. GEORGE H. CORNISH, RICHARD J. FORMAN, and BENJAMIN CLEMENT, were appointed a Committee on Statistics.

The PRESIDENT nominated the following Committee on Memorials and Special Resolutions:—Revs. I. B. Aylesworth, M.D., N. R. Willoughby, M.A., J. S. Youmans.

Several Memorials and Special Resolutions were received, and referred to the Committee.

The PRESIDENT introduced the Rev. J. W. LINDSAY, D.D., and the Rev. ASBURY P. LOWREY, D.D., Delegates from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States.

The DELEGATES briefly addressed the Conference, and the Rev. DR. LINDSAY presented the Address of the General Conference.

QUESTION VII.—Who have died?

1. DR. COONEY

Was born in the City of Dublin, in the year 1801. His parents, being zealous Roman Catholics, were exceedingly anxious that their son should become a Priest in that communion. His training and education were therefore directed to the accomplishment of this fond desire; but his father dying when Bro. Cooney was 18 years of age, he was obliged to enter into mercantile life.

He immigrated to Miramichi, New Brunswick, in 1824, where, after several years spent in secular employment, he was offered inducements by the person who subsequently became the Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese, to devote himself to the ministry of that Church. His early education and literary tastes prompted him to accept this invitation, and for several months he applied himself to studious preparation for that office. Some irregularities in the system he had been trained to revere, and incidental conversations with a talented Local Preacher in Chatham, N. B., began that intellectual and spiritual revolution which resulted in his joining the Wesleyan Methodist Church, and becoming an honored and useful Minister of that body.

He was appointed to several important charges in Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Canada, in all which he gave full proof of his ministry, and lived in the love of his brethren, and of the people among whom he laboured. His cultivated intellect made him a welcome visitor where special services for Connexional objects demanded aid. His gifts and education, blended with a glowing piety, gave him power to advocate and promote the interests of the Church to which he showed unwavering attachment and growing love.

After years of honourable toil in his Master's vineyard, in retiring from the active work of the ministry, he submitted to the will of Him who had called him to it. Having chosen Toronto as his home, he there passed through intense physical suffering with un-murmuring submission and with joyous anticipation of that blessed and glorious immortality into which he triumphantly entered on Monday, the 18th day of March, 1870, in the 70th year of his age, and the 39th of his Christian ministry.

2. REV. CYRUS RICHMOND ALLISON.

The Rev. Cyrus R. Allison was born in Marysburgh, Prince Edward Co., in October, 1795; and died in Picton on the 1st July, 1869. Not yet attained to manhood, he was converted to God, in Demorestville, in March, 1816. Soon after his conversion, he had a divine call to the work of the ministry. He long and steadily resisted the conviction that God designed him for usefulness as a herald of mercy to others. For a season he walked in darkness. Yielding at length to the conviction of duty, and submitting his will in this matter, to the will of God, light broke upon his darkness, and his soul was filled with unspeakable joy. After preliminary efforts as an exhorter and as a local-preacher he received his first appointment as an itinerant in 1826, opening his commission in the city of Kingston. Ten years later he received an appointment in connection with Upper Canada Academy, now the University of Victoria College. He was subsequently called to fill the office of Chairman of a District, the duties of which he discharged with fidelity and zeal. His health failing, he sought for and obtained a superannuated relation to the Conference in 1849. Though retiring from the active work and the responsibilities of the itinerancy, he carried with him into his partial retirement a zeal for God and for souls; and rarely, if ever, lost an opportunity of exhibiting the cross, and of preaching Jesus as a present and an all-sufficient Saviour.

Mr. Allison was a preacher of more than ordinary ability. He was a man clear in his conceptions, strong in his convictions, uncompromising in his fidelity, wise in his counsels, firm in his friendships, indomitable in his perseverance, unbending in his integrity, and successful in his labours. His latter years were his best years. He ripened as life's summer wasted. His love to God and to his brethren became more fervid as nature's fires decayed.

Anxious to enjoy the satisfaction of once more meeting his brethren in Conference, he, twelve months ago, in much enfeebled health, arrived in Toronto and appeared in Richmond-street church. He was, nevertheless, unable to remain in the Conference, and retired therefrom soon to join the assembly above. It was sadly feared that he would not live to reach his home and see his beloved wife and children. This privilege, however, was granted him. He died in the midst of his family and friends. Conscious of his approaching dissolution he said to a dear daughter, a short time before his departure, "All is right," "All is well!" This was followed by the expression of the weary pilgrim anticipating rest, "Almost home!" Among the last words that lingered on the pale and quivering lips of Bro. Allison were "Precious Jesus!" His sun set in a cloudless sky!

Numerous seals to his ministry remain on the various fields of his ministerial toil, while many have doubtlessly welcomed his arrival among the triumphant host above.

3. JAMES HENRY BISHOP.

James Henry Bishop, a native of England, was born at Brompton, in Kent, on the 27th of August, 1827. He was favoured with the drawings of the Holy Spirit from the earliest period of his recollection, and grew up in good moral habits. But it was not until his sixteenth year that he was led to feel himself a sinner, and to seek earnestly for the blessing of conscious pardon. This he soon realized, to the comfort and joy of his soul.

Constrained by compassion for those out of Christ, he immediately began to labour as he had opportunity,—in the prayer-meeting, in the Sabbath-school, and in other spheres of personal effort. Good natural abilities, improved by a fair English education, enabled him to speak with propriety and effectiveness. He was put on the Plan as an exhorter within two years after his conversion, at the early age of eighteen, and speedily attained the status of a local preacher. Five years he served the Church in this capacity, when, on the recommendation of the Quarterly Meeting of his Circuit, he was received as a probationer for the Wesleyan Ministry, and placed at the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, where he was characterized by diligent and successful study. He entered the Institution in 1850, offering at the time to go to any part of the world where his services might be required.

At the end of Bro. Bishop's three years term of study, he had been designated to the Island of Barbadoes, in the West Indies, and his name appears in the Minutes of the British Conference for a Circuit in that island for the year 1853-54. The prevalence of the yellow fever detained him at home for a time, during which interval he was needed and sent to Montreal, to supply a vacancy in that city. Preparatory to his appointment, Bro. Bishop was ordained in London (England), on the 27th of November, 1853, by the Revs. Dr. Bunting, Dr. Hoole, and Dr. Osborne, assisted by the Rev. Wm. Arthur.

Mr. Bishop's accurate acquaintance with the original languages in which the Scriptures were written, and his knowledge of other branches which illustrate the Holy Bible, joined to his constant and delighted study of the sacred volume, made him an able expositor of Scripture, and gave to his sermons a richness, variety, and depth that held the attention and edified the minds of all in his congregations who could appreciate what is truly valuable in preaching. His ability in the pulpit, diligent pastoral habits, spotless purity of character, and circumspect deportment, led to his appointment to several of our most prominent circuits. He travelled successively Montreal, Toronto West, Picton, Cobourg, London, and Toronto North Circuits.

Bro. Bishop died on Christmas-day, 1839, of disease of the heart, after a painful illness of six weeks' continuance. His last sufferings were borne with meekness and patience; while hope and confidence cheered him through the vale of death. Once, when very weary, he said, "I long to get home." A friend said, "Jesus will soon come." He replied, "I am ready." Such expressions as the following were often on his lips:—"Patience is having her trial; but there is rest in heaven—sweet rest for me—in my home in heaven."—"We shall soon 'gather at the river.'" Two days before his death, he attempted to sing the verses concluding with—

My Jesus hath done all things well."

Bro. Bishop's last attempted utterance was the prayer of the martyred Stephen. He got as far as "Lord Jesus, receive—" and his voice failed. A watchful friend expressed the rest for him,— "Receive my spirit." He spoke no more.

Thus lived, and laboured, and suffered, and died, our amiable, unpretending, but accomplished and faithful Brother Bishop, of whom it may be said,— "He was without an enemy."

4. REV. W. T. HEWITT.

Brother Hewitt was born in Yorkshire, England, in the year 1800. At an early age he united with the Methodist Church, in which he filled the office of local preacher for many years previous to his emigration. On coming to this country he continued to serve the Church in the same position, until, in 1854, he was admitted into our regular ministry, and laboured therein for seven years with some measure of success. In 1861 he became a supernumerary, and settled in Clarendon. He died in December, 1869.

5. W. H. SCHOFIELD, M.A.,

Was the son of W. A. Schofield, Esq., of Brockville. He was born in Delta, Ontario, on the 1st June, 1841. He was early dedicated to the Lord, and began while young to give evidence of the work of grace upon his heart. At the age of twelve years he experienced the convicting power of truth under the ministry of the Rev. Richard Whiting, and after seeking the Lord a few days he was enabled to rejoice in God his Saviour. The evidence of his acceptance through Christ was clear and distinct, enabling him to rest on the atonement with comfort and satisfaction.

He immediately united with the Wesleyan Church, and began to work for Jesus, by the exercise of his talents, in exhortation and prayer.

His devoted Christian mother early dedicated him to the work of the ministry, and was often heard to say, "Therefore, also, I have lent him to the Lord: as long as he liveth he shall be lent to the Lord." And now having been brought to Christ himself, he was constrained to seek the wandering souls of men, and gave himself fully to the work of the ministry. Having formed a high estimate of ministerial duty and responsibility, he sought that qualification which a collegiate course usually secures, that by the Divine blessing he might be thoroughly furnished unto every good work.

After having received his degree in arts at our University, and completed his probation as a minister, he was publicly designated to the fulness of the ministerial office in 1864. As a minister, though youthful, he had attained a maturity of excellence in wisdom and goodness, in piety and zeal, in pulpit ability and pastoral efficiency, that, had his life been spared, gave promise of great future usefulness. He was much beloved by the people among whom he labored, and was generally successful. His last Circuit was Lakefield, on the Peterboro' District, where he labored for a year and a half with great acceptability and success.

During his last illness, which he bore with resignation to the Divine will, his soul was often remarkably drawn towards his future home. Several times during his affliction, he conversed freely with his wife and other friends in reference to his preparation for death, and the great joy of having some stars in his crown of rejoicing. It was to him a source of great consolation, that he had been permitted to preach Christ and him crucified.

A few days before his departure, when speaking to a friend, he rejoiced in the grace and salvation of Christ, and felt happy in view of the will of God, whether it might be for life or death, and quoted as his present experience, the verse :

"Not a cloud doth arise
To darken the skies,
Or hide for one moment
My Lord from my eyes."

Saying to his wife, "If I leave you, tell my friends that all is well!—All is well!—Saved by grace!—All is well!"

Thus passed away from labour on earth to rest in heaven, our dear brother, on the 22nd of October, 1869, in the 29th year of his age, and 10th of his ministry.

6. ROBERT WATSON FERRIER, M.A.,

Son of the Honourable James Ferrier, was born at Montreal, 26th September, 1838 : and died at Blairgowrie, Scotland, 2nd May, 1870, in the thirty-second year of his age and eighth of his ministry. He was brought up by his parents "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord," and at the early age of twelve was soundly converted to God. Manifesting a strong desire for knowledge and an aptitude to learning, he was thoroughly and liberally educated. During his entire collegiate course at McGill and Edinburgh Universities, and Didsbury Theological Institution, his Christian character was steadily maintained. Many were his efforts to commend the love of Jesus to others. His attainments as a scholar were considerable.

In 1865, at the close of his probation, he was ordained to the work and office of the ministry. His sanguine expectations, however, for a life of efficient service in the Master's vineyard were not realized. From the effects of a fever which prostrated him while travelling in the East, his constitution was permanently impaired; but as strength permitted he laboured with acceptance and profit.

Bro. Ferrier was remarkably kind-hearted and generous; independent, yet very affable—there was the beautiful blending of courtesy and firmness. His long affliction was borne with Christian cheerfulness. A year ago he retired as a Supernumerary, and spent most of his time abroad in order to recruit his health, but without success. A letter written home, and dated 16th February last, touchingly describes his spiritual condition:—"I cannot otherwise express the change of last night than by saying, the power from above came over me suddenly, reviving every motion within me for good. I looked up and said, it is the Lord; and ever since I have felt sweetly resigned to every pain, and feel full of love to everybody." From the moment of this baptism of the Holy Spirit until death he was unusually happy in the Lord. The last lines penned by our departed brother, which were received by his father and mother in Montreal after his decease, were,—“My heart keeps fixed, and the Lord is with me by night and by day.” On the evening of his death he retired at eight o'clock, and in about an hour he was away to his Father in heaven.

7. REV. SAMUEL CONNOR.

The deceased brother was a native of Canada. He was converted to God under the ministry of the Rev. James Thompson, and gave satisfactory evidence of his devotion to Christ. In 1863 he was employed as a preacher under a Chairman, and was received on trial by the Conference of 1864. He was ordained in 1867 at the Hamilton Conference. On his several Circuits he was successful in turning many to righteousness, and was greatly beloved by his colleagues and the people generally.

In September, 1867, he took a severe cold, which, by continued labour, caused excessive hæmorrhage of the lungs. He was under the necessity of retiring from his work, which, of itself, was a great trial. He was, however, “patient in tribulation,” and endured suffering with Christian resignation. When all hope of recovery was given up, Bro. Connor retired from Cherry Valley to his father's house, on the Pittsburg mission. Here he gradually declined; but during the last few weeks of his life his confidence in the atonement of Christ was strong, and he rejoiced in hope of the glory of God. Bro. Connor departed in great peace on the 7th of January, 1870, in the 33rd year of his age, and the sixth year of his ministry.

8. JAMES FEAR.

Brother James Fear was a son of the Rev. Samuel Fear, and was born near Guelph, on the 21st of December, 1840. He was converted in the eighteenth year of his age, and from that time was an earnest follower of the Lord Jesus Christ.

For some years he was an acceptable local preacher, and at the last Conference, being received as a candidate for the ministry, was appointed to the Georgetown Circuit. A few short months, however, completed the period of his service. He was attacked with inflammation of the lungs, and after a few days illness, which he bore with truly Christian resignation, passed to the land of the blessed, from the residence of his uncle, Mr. W. Stevens, of Meaford, on the 17th of April, 1870. To him to "live was Christ, to die was gain."

MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS.

On Thursday evening an open session of Conference was held in Richmond Street Church, for the reception of Delegates from Sister Conferences.

After devotional exercises, the SECRETARY read the Address of the General Conference of the M. E. Church in the United States. [See Appendix C.]

The PRESIDENT addressed the Conference, and afterwards introduced the Rev. JOHN W. LINDSAY, D.D., and the Rev. ASBURY P. LOWREY, D.D., Delegates from the M. E. Church in the United States, who severally addressed the Conference.

It was then moved by the Rev. Dr. RYERSON, seconded by the Rev. JOHN BORLAND,---

That this Conference has heard with profound satisfaction the fraternal greetings of American Methodism, which have been so eloquently conveyed to us by the distinguished brethren to whom it has been our high privilege to extend a grateful welcome upon the present occasion; and while we have listened with delight to the sentiments of fraternal regard and Christian affection expressed in the address that has been read to us, and the noble and inspiring utterances of our honored brethren, Dr. Lindsay and Dr. Lowrey, we heartily reciprocate their expressions of brotherly kindness; we gratefully rejoice in the success of the great Church which they represent, and earnestly pray that God may make them a thousand-fold more than they are, and that the bonds of Christian love, that make us one in Christ, may grow stronger and closer through all coming years.

The resolution was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

The PRESIDENT introduced the Rev. GERVASE SMITH, from England, who also addressed the Conference.

On the following morning the business Session resumed.

On motion it was

Resolved,—That the Treasurer of the Educational Fund be instructed to pay no more claims of probationers for expenses incurred in attending the examinations; but that the rule of Conference be enforced.

The PRESIDENT nominated the members of the Educational Committee. [See Standing Committees on page vii.]

On Friday evening an open Session was held for the reception into full connection with the Conference of the candidates for the Ministry who had completed their term of probation.

Business Session resumed.

The order of the day was called, being the reading of the Report of the Committee on the Revision of the Discipline.

The Report was read by the Rev. CHAS. LAVELL, M.A. Consideration deferred.

The REVS. SAMUEL ROSE and HENRY F. BLAND were appointed a deputation to convey the fraternal greetings of the Conference to the Primitive Methodist Conference; and The REVS. CHAS. LAVELL, M.A., and E. H. DEWART, were appointed on a similar errand to the Congregational Union.

The Rev. Drs. LINDSAY and LOWREY took formal leave of the Conference.

Moved by Dr. RYERSON, seconded by Dr. GREEN, and

Resolved,—That this Conference has heard with the highest satisfaction, the instructive and eloquent addresses of the Rev. Drs. Lindsay and Lowrey, Representatives of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the U. S. Their varied intercourse with us has afforded us the greatest pleasure; we entertain for them sentiments of profound respect and warm affection, and we earnestly pray for their future personal success and happiness, and for the prosperity of the great Church which they have so fraternally and ably represented.

The Rev. GERVASE SMITH, of the English Conference, the Rev. HILTON CHESBOROUGH, late Missionary in the West Indies, and the Rev. BISHOP RICHARDSON, of the M. E. Church in Canada, were severally introduced to the Conference.

Moved by the Rev. JOHN BORLAND, seconded by the Rev. Dr. EVANS, and

Resolved,—That this Conference desires most devoutly and gratefully to acknowledge the good hand of the Lord for good, in the recent providences by which our country has been so remarkably delivered from the machinations of wicked and restless men; for the valour with which He inspired our people, and the protection that, in the hour of danger, He afforded them; and in the confusion and utter discomfiture with which he visited our country's invaders.

A communication was received from the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Canada in connection with the Church of Scotland.

The Letter-writers were instructed to acknowledge the same, and express the wish of the Conference for a continuance of fraternal greetings.

The Address of the British Conference was read by the Secretary,—the Conference standing. [See Appendix C.]

The Address of the Conference of Eastern British America was also read. [See Appendix C.]

A reply to the Address of the Conference of 1869 to the Governor General, was received and read. [See Appendix C.]

The Rev. J. C. SLATER presented the Report of the Children's Fund Committee, which was adopted. [See Appendix B.]

Invitations for the next Session of Conference were received from Belleville, Montreal, and St. Catharines. [See Routine Business, p. 16.]

On motion, the Board of Examiners for Candidates for the Ministry was appointed. [See Appendix D.]

A communication was received from the Secretary of the Methodist New Connexion Conference, now in Session, enclosing a copy of Resolutions adopted by said Conference, in reference to a Union among the various Methodist bodies in Canada. On motion it was Resolved,—That the resolutions of the last Conference in reference to Methodist Union be re-affirmed, and that the Letter-writers shall include a copy of the resolutions to the Methodist New Connexion Conference in the answer which they shall send to the aforesaid Conference.

Professor BURWASH presented the Report of the Committee appointed to prepare a course of study for Candidates for the German work. On motion,

The Report was adopted, and the Committee re-appointed. [See Appendix D.]

On motion, the President was authorized to affix his signature, and the seal of the Conference, to any document necessary to confirm Deeds of Conveyance for three lots of land formerly held by the Trustees of Wesley Chapel, in the town of London.

The Rev. Dr. RICE presented the Report of the Treasurer of the Educational Fund, which was adopted. [See Appendix B.]

The Rev. THOMAS BROCK read the Report of the Church Relief Fund Committee, and it was adopted. [See Appendix B.]

On motion it was Resolved,—That the Treasurer of the Church Relief Fund be, ex-officio, a member of the Committee.

The Revs. ROBERT BOYLE and WM. ROWE, Delegates from the Primitive Methodist Conference, were introduced, and addressed the Conference.

It was moved by the Rev. E. EVANS, D.D., seconded by the Rev. Dr. TAYLOR, supported by the Rev. C. LAVELL, M.A., and

Resolved,—That we have listened with pleasure to the kind and fraternal addresses of the deputation from the Primitive Methodist Conference,—we greatly rejoice in the report of their success in winning souls to Christ,—we cordially sympathize with the brotherly and Catholic sentiments which they have uttered, and we, too, look forward to the day when the different Methodist bodies in this country shall be one in organization as they are now one in doctrine and in spirit.

The Revs. H. D. POWIS and ARCHIBALD DUFF, Delegates from the Congregational Union of Canada, were introduced, and addressed the Conference.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. NELLES, seconded by the Rev. Dr. TAYLOR, and

Resolved,—That this Conference receives with cordial greetings of Christian fraternity, the Rev. H. D. Powis and the Rev. Archibald Duff, delegates of the Congregational Union, to this Conference, and rejoices once more in the opportunity thus afforded of exhibiting the true spirit of Christian Catholicity as between the Protestant Churches of Canada, and takes the occasion of the visit of these delegates to express the earnest wish and prayer of the Conference that the choicest blessings of the Great Head of the Church may rest on the Congregational Churches of Canada.

The Rev. S. D. RICE, D.D., was re-appointed Principal of the Wesleyan Female College, Hamilton.

The PRESIDENT nominated the Revs. R. JONES, Dr. GREEN, Dr. NELLES, Dr. RICE, S. ROSE, J. BORLAND, WILLIAM MCFADDEN, WILLIAM POLLARD, and J. C. SLATER—a Committee of Ways and Means in reference to the Sustentation of Victoria College.

The SECRETARY of Conference read the Report of the Book Committee, and also the Report of the Auditors.

The BOOK STEWARD read the Financial Report and the Balance Sheet.

On motion, the Reports were adopted.

The Rev. EDWARD H. DEWART was re-elected Editor, and briefly addressed the Conference.

On motion, the following Clerical Members of the Board of the Hamilton Female College were appointed :—Revs. W. M. PUNSHON, M.A., ENOCH WOOD, D.D., S. ROSE, S. S. NELLES, D.D., S. D. RICE, D.D., R. JONES, and G. R. SANDERSON.

A Resolution relating to Candidates assisted by the Educational Fund, was adopted. [See Standing Resolutions.]

The Rev. ALFRED ANDREWS read the Report of the Sunday School Committee.

The Report was adopted. [See Appendix B.]

Several Resolutions from the same Committee were referred to the Special Committee on Sunday School work.

The following Recommendations from the Board of Directors of the Wesleyan Sunday School Union were read :—

1. That as the present arrangements for a Sunday School Union are found to be impracticable, this Board recommends to the Conference the appointment of a mixed Committee to take the whole question into consideration during the present year, and report to the Conference of 1871.
2. That pending the settlement of the Sunday School question it is the opinion of this Board that the services of an agent should be dispensed with, and that it should be left with the Book Committee to make provision for editing the Sunday School Periodicals.

The Secretary moved concurrence in the Resolutions ; also, that the Resolutions, &c., of the Sunday School Committee be referred to the mixed Committee, and that said Committee meet not later than the 1st of November, 1870.

The Rev. N. R. WILLOUGHBY, M.A., presented the Report of the Committee on Memorials and Special Resolutions, and the following were adopted :—

“The Quarterly Meeting of the Yonge Street South Circuit recommends that it be made possible by the Conference that men who are not members of the Church be appointed Church Trustees in some cases.” The Committee would respectfully submit that it would be very injudicious in the Conference to render such an appointment possible.

“The Toronto District Meeting recommends that a Committee be appointed to secure an amendment to the Law of our Church property in so far as to render it unnecessary to procure the consent of the Court of Chancery to the conveyance of such property.” We recommend that such a Committee be appointed.

The part of the Report referring to a Memorial of the Quarterly Meeting of the Toronto West Circuit, was amended by the substitution of the following Resolutions :—

- Resolved*,—1. That the Memorial from the Toronto West Circuit touching the mode of dropping or expelling of members from the Church, having received careful consideration, the Conference is of opinion that the existing provisions of the Discipline are sufficient for the purposes of wise and effective administration.
2. That the subject of inserting in the Discipline a forra to be used on the admission of members, be referred to a Committee for fuller consideration.
3. That a copy of the above Resolutions be forwarded to the Superintendent of the Toronto West Circuit, to be laid before the Quarterly Meeting.

Referring to Memorials from the Toronto North and Yonge Street North Circuits, on the subject of religious amusements, the following was adopted :

Resolved,—That whereas memorials have been sent to this Conference from the Quarterly Official Meeting of two very important Circuits, and thereby the members of those Boards have expressed the opinion that the spirituality of some of our people has been endangered and even damaged by the attendance at local gatherings, where it is alleged that questionable proceedings have occurred in the form of intellectual entertainments, this Conference would most solemnly urge all our members, officers and ministers to avoid, in these days of latitudinarian tendencies, everything that might have the appearance of a violation of our rules in relation to diversions which "cannot be taken in the name of the Lord Jesus," and the "singing those songs and reading those books which do not tend to the knowledge or love of God."

Referring to a Recommendation of the Brockville District on the "Registration of Baptisms," the Committee reported :—

"We are of the opinion that there is great laxity on this subject on the part of some Superintendents. We are further of the opinion that it is the duty of each Superintendent to make enquiry in each family on the subject in order to bring the importance of the subject before the people ; and we are of the opinion that it would greatly add to the interests of the Church to require that a Record be kept on each Circuit."—Adopted.

Resolutions from the same District on the subject of Catechumen Classes, were referred to the Special Committee on Sunday School matters.

Referring to a Memorial on the subject of Temperance, from the most worthy Grand Lodge of British Templars, the Committee recommended the republication of Clauses 2, 3 and 4 of their report on the same subject last year. The clauses are the following :—

- "2. That while this Conference reiterates its frequently-expressed views on Total Abstinence, it would renew its earnest recommendation that every minister should preach at least one sermon in each year to each congregation under his charge, enforcing Mr. Wesley's sentiments against drunkenness and drinking, as truly scriptural and tending to the moral and physical welfare of society.
- "3. That this Conference earnestly recommends some form of Temperance effort in connection with all our Sabbath Schools, and urges on all Superintendents and Teachers the propriety of placing in the hands of the children such books and tracts as will serve to inform them on the subject of Temperance, and guard our youth against the pernicious drinking practices which now prevail to an alarming extent.

"4. That this Conference earnestly entreats all ministers and preachers, as far as their special duties will allow, and all the members of our churches and congregations, to render all possible aid in the attainment of a revival of sound Temperance principles as auxiliary to the spread and growth of vital godliness."

Moved by the Rev. J. BORLAND, seconded by the Rev. Dr. EVANS, and

Resolved,—That the Conference cannot allow its Sessions to close without expressing the high gratification afforded it by the visit, to our honored President, of the Rev. Gervase Smith, of the parent Conference in England; and for those ministrations from the pulpit and the platform so eminently instructive and profitable to ourselves and the very large congregations gathered on several occasions; and while praying that he may be, by the good providence of God, conducted in safety to the land of his and our people, we assure him that the memory of his presence and intercourse during his brief sojourn among us, will be long and ardently cherished. And further, that our respected and gifted brother be requested to represent this Conference at the British Conference on its next assembling in Burslem, England.

The Rev. RICHARD JONES presented the Report of the Committee of Ways and Means. [See Special Resolutions.]

The Rev. T. S. KEOUGH brought up the Report of the Committee on Insurance of Church property.

The Report was adopted, and it was Resolved,—That the Book Steward do issue the necessary schedules for the return of insurance on Church property, and that the Superintendents of Circuits do fill up the same and forward them to the College Agent, Rev. T. S. Keough. Also, that a column be added, if practicable, for return of losses of Church property by fire.

The Rev. JAMES GRAY brought up the Resolutions of which he had given notice:—

Resolved,—That the Secretary of the Missionary Committee shall annually report to the Conference the proceedings of the Committee; that an abstract of that Report shall be published in the Minutes of Conference, as in the case of other mixed Committees; and that a column shall be added to the table of Connexional Funds now published in our Minutes in which the sums raised for Missions on each Circuit and Mission shall be entered.

Two additional Resolutions, referring to the Missionary Society, were adopted, and referred to the Missionary Committee.

The Rev. Dr. RYERSON introduced the following Resolutions :—

1. That while we thank the President of the Conference and Missionary Secretaries for offering to the Government the services of one of our Ministers in the capacity of chaplain to such portion of the troops sent to the Red River as belong to our community and desire the ministrations of our Church, we regard the reply of Sir George E. Cartier, Minister of Militia, as discourteous, not only to the chief officers of this Conference, but, through them, to all members of our Church,—whose numbers and standing throughout the land, whose zeal and interest in the Red River expedition, as well as the labors of our Missionaries and teachers in that country, merit very different treatment from the Government.
2. That while we justly complain of the conduct of Sir George E. Cartier in his discourteous refusal to consider the request of our President and Missionary Secretaries to provide a chaplain for those volunteers of the Red River expedition who desire such services, and his appointing at the same time a Priest of his own Church as chaplain to the expedition ; we view the setting apart of 1,400,000 of acres of the richest lands of that country to the Priests and co-religionists of Sir George E. Cartier as incompatible with those principles of Church and State separation, of equal rights and privileges amongst all denominations of Christians, and of the support of their operations by voluntary contributions, for which the people of Upper Canada have long contended, and which have been established as a fundamental part of our constitution of Government.

The Resolutions were seconded by the Rev. GEORGE DOUGLAS, LL.D., and unanimously adopted.

It was then

Resolved,—That the subject of the foregoing resolutions be referred to a Special Committee of five ministers and five laymen, with power to add to their numbers, and to adopt such measures and proceedings as they may judge expedient in the premises.

[See Special Committees, p. vii.]

Moved by the Rev. JAMES GRAY, seconded by the Rev. B. JONES,

Whereas there is no law in regard to the jurisdiction and allowances of Ministers on our Circuits between the time of their appointment to a new field of labor, and their entering upon the work, and differences and disputes may sometimes arise from this cause:—Therefore Resolved,—"That each retiring minister shall be responsible for the exercise of all his ministerial functions on the Circuit from which he is about to retire, up and including the last Sabbath of June, and also that the payment of allowances, when changes of Circuit occur during the year, and in all other cases, shall be calculated from the above date."

The Revs. Dr. GREEN and E. B. HARPER, M.A., were appointed a deputation to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada.

Moved by Rev. J. C. SLATER, seconded by Rev. W. S. BLACKSTOCK,

Resolved,—That any minister employed, by the permission of the Conference, in the service of any Institution or Society, not connected with our Church, shall have no claim on the Children's Fund, for his children, for the time during which he is so employed.

The Rev. G. R. SANDERSON read the Report of the Superannuated Ministers' Fund, and on motion the Report was adopted. [See Appendix B.]

The PRESIDENT nominated a Special Committee on Sunday School Matters. [See Special Committees.]

The Rev. W. R. Parker, M.A., read the address of the Conference, to the Conference of Eastern British North America. [See Appendix C.]

The Rev. Dr. RYERSON read the address to the British Conference. [See Appendix C.]

The Rev. GEORGE DOUGLAS, LL.D., renewed notice of motion in reference to Division of Conference.

On motion it was

Resolved,—That a Committee, nominated by the President, be appointed to consider the best method of providing more adequate Theological training of Candidates in our ministry.

On motion of the Rev. ALFRED ANDREWS, it was Resolved,—That an additional question be introduced into the Book of Discipline in the chapter relating to the business of the District Meetings, to read as follows :—"What is the present state of our Sunday Schools?" Which question shall be answered when the Lay Representatives are present, and the schedules from the Circuits shall then be presented.

The Rev. Dr. JEFFERS read the Pastoral Address of the Conference to the Members of the Church under its care. The Address was adopted.

The Rev. Mr. BYRNE, Agent of the French Canadian Missionary Society, was introduced, and addressed the Conference.

Moved by Dr. TAYLOR, seconded by the Rev. W. S. BLACKSTOCK, and

Resolved,—That this Conference has heard with pleasure the statements of the Rev. Mr. Byrne, Agent of the French Canadian Missionary Society, and desires to renew the expression of our cordial sympathy with that Society, our admiration of the zealous and self-denying labors of its agents, our gratitude to Almighty God for the measure of success granted them, and our earnest prayer for their increased success in the great and good work in which they are engaged.

The Committee on Revision of Discipline, having finished their Report, it was Resolved,—That the edition of the Discipline of 1864, published by Anson Green, as now amended by this Conference, be received, adopted, and published as the Book of Discipline of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada, in connection with the British Conference.

The Rev. JOHN BREDIN read the Report of the Contingent Fund Committee, which was adopted.

On motion it was

Resolved,—That the cordial thanks of the Conference be tendered to the various Railway and Steamboat Companies who have granted privileges to persons attending the Conference.

Resolved,—That the thanks of the Conference be presented to our friends in Toronto, by whose generous Christian hospitality the convenience and comfort of the members of the Conference have been so greatly enhanced. And that the Ministers of the City be directed to read this resolution in their respective congregations next Sabbath, with an assurance of our earnest prayer for the present and eternal welfare of our kind hosts and their families.

Resolved,—That our cordial thanks be presented to the Ministers resident in Toronto for their kind and assiduous attentions to the Members of Conference during their attendance at its Sessions.

THE REPORT

OF THE

SABBATH SCHOOL COMMITTEE FOR 1870.

The records of the past year give evidence of an increasing interest in our Sabbath Schools throughout almost every part of our widely extended field of labor, and the desirability and importance of establishing and maintaining thoroughly schools on all our Circuits is universally admitted.

Our main dependence for the future prosperity and stability of the Church must be in the children of our own families; and these we hope to bring to the great Shepherd largely through the agency of the Sabbath School.

Notwithstanding this consciousness of the paramount value of Sabbath School operations, still your Committee are compelled to admit that, at the present time, we have not an organization which gives general satisfaction.

The Conference has been pleased to submit to this Committee several recommendations proceeding from the District Meetings which are designed to remedy existing evils. These resolutions have had the best attention which your Committee could give them, yet our available time has been much too limited to do ample justice to the very grave subjects embraced. The results of these investigations are embodied in the resolutions herewith subjoined.

Owing to the virtual failure of the constitution of the Sabbath School Union, there have been very few financial returns made to the Treasurer. The result being the entailment of great hardships on the Agent appointed last year. Your Committee would respectfully suggest to the Conference the propriety of granting him assistance from the Contingent Fund sufficient to cover his heavy loss during the year.

Your Committee would remind the members of the Conference of the necessity of using all proper exertions to diffuse more widely our own Sabbath School literature. The Advocate has somewhat increased in circulation during the past year, but not to that extent which is desirable, which its worth and excellence deserve, or which its present low price led us to anticipate at the last Conference. The careful and economical management of our excellent Book Steward, which alone has saved the Connexion from loss by its publication this year, most assuredly ought to be so appreciated as to lead to a more thorough canvass of our Circuits in order to increase its circulation as widely as possible.

The Banner supplies a great want long felt by many of our teachers; and by prudent management will, doubtless, yet prove to be of vital importance in perfecting this department of our work.

Our inestimable Catechisms are used in many of our best schools; but your Committee deeply regret that in the majority of the schools: Catechisms are employed.

There have been several District Sabbath School Meetings during the year, some of which have resulted in awakening a deeper conviction in the minds of both ministers and laymen, the necessity of entering more heartily than ever into the work of training up the youth committed to our care in the ways of truth and religion.

Your Committee has found great lack of uniformity and definiteness in many of the returns, and the lateness of the period when many of them were presented, has very greatly increased the labor of the Committee, and delayed unnecessarily the work committed to them. Your Committee is compelled also to lay before the Conference the fact that some Circuits have not yet reported at all. And two Districts have failed to make any financial returns. This may, perhaps, account for the unpleasant revelation that we are compelled to report a decrease in several items of Sabbath School statistics as compared with last year.

ADDRESSES AND REPLIES.

ANSWER OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1869,

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE W. M. CONFERENCE IN CANADA, 1869.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

Your fraternal Address has been received by us with much satisfaction. Be assured that the interest which we feel in the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada is not only continued but increasing.

Your references to the President unanimously chosen by you have not taken us by surprise. From our own knowledge of him we were quite prepared to hear of your high admiration of Mr. Punshon's remarkable gifts, and your testimony to his great pulpit and administrative usefulness. We are gratified to find that your President acted in accordance with the wishes of your last year's Conference in appointing the Rev. George Douglas as Co-Delegate,—a brother of whose estimable character, spirit, and talents, we have heard.

We greatly rejoice in the continued prosperity of your churches. The goodly number of candidates for the ministry which you report we consider a healthful and hopeful sign. The numerical increase in your Church members is proportionably larger than that which we ourselves report; and we confidently expect in coming years tidings of a still greater development in your Institutions and number of members. From all we can learn, Methodism promises to obtain an extensive hold upon the population of Canada, and to exert a powerful influence for good upon the future of the new Dominion. We fervently hope and pray that it may be so.

Now that Government aid has been withdrawn from the denominational Colleges of your country, we think you have acted wisely and well in appealing to the liberality of your own people to supply for the University of Victoria College the necessary funds. We heartily congratulate you upon the success which has thus far followed your efforts in this matter; and should your expectations of raising within the current ecclesiastical year the required one hundred thousand dollars be realized, it will afford another instance of the heartiness and vigour of our common Methodism, and of its flexibility in adapting its plans and economies to the varying requirements and circumstances of the times. Your attention to the higher education for both sexes is certainly worthy of commendation.

With regard to our labours, we are happy to inform you that during the past year they have not been in vain in the Lord. After filling up vacancies occasioned by deaths and other causes, we report an increase of 3,146 members in our Societies in Great Britain, and of 3,328 on our Mission stations. Although the increase at home is under the average of recent years, yet we are thankful that amid the distractions and disturbing influences of a year of unusual political excitement, we have had unbroken connexional peace and some measure of prosperity.

The material progress which has marked our several Institutions for some time past has been satisfactorily sustained during the last year. The statistics of chapel-building are equally gratifying with those that have appeared in the annual reports of this department of our work for several successive years. Wesleyan day-schools are multiplied, as well as Sunday-schools, notwithstanding that the question of primary education is in an unsettled state, and that important changes are deemed probable by those who, on this subject, watch closely the tendencies of the times. We have added within the year a new Branch to our Theological Institution, by the opening under favourable auspices of the Headingley College. Our Home Missionary operations are productive of good fruit; and, had we the means, are capable of indefinite development. This is especially the case in our large towns, where we have easy access to the masses of the people, and where truly "the fields are white unto the harvest."

We have been greatly gladdened during the present Session of Conference by many indications which show that the Methodism of the present is in harmony, in doctrines, spirit, and aims, with the Methodism of the past. And with regard to the future, it would be difficult for any one interested in the Work of God to listen to the public examinations of our candidates for ordination just held, without feeling thankful that whatever guarantee for orthodoxy and spirituality is involved in a converted ministry is possessed by our churches. Whilst tendencies towards superstition on the one hand, and rationalism on the other, prevail around us, we are persuaded that there is a growing desire amongst ourselves and people to attain to the simplicity, directness of aim, and soul-converting power which characterized the early Methodist preachers.

We cheerfully leave to the assembled brethren the choice of the President of your next Conference. The Co-Delegate will, according to the terms of union, be appointed by the President so elected.

And now, dear brethren, we commend you to the grace of our common Master, and wish you, through the abundant blessing of the Lord the Spirit, a very happy and prosperous year.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOHN FARRAR,

Secretary.

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE

OF THE

WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH IN CANADA,

In connection with the British Conference,

TO THE

CONFERENCE IN ENGLAND.

REVEREND FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Your parental and suggestive Address has afforded us peculiar satisfaction. We rejoice to learn your undisturbed peace and unity throughout your entire Connexion, and your advancement and prosperity in every department of your great home and foreign work ; and we hope to turn to practical purposes your edifying and affectionate counsels.

In the exercise of the privilege which you granted us last year, we elected the Reverend William Morley Punshon, A.M., our President ; and in the exercise of the same privilege we have at this Session re-elected him to the same office. His continued residence amongst us has secured our increased esteem and affection ; while his great pulpit, platform, and administrative talents, his extensive travels and labors, his powerful discourses and appeals, together with his affectionate counsels and generous contributions, have been largely instrumental in advancing the various branches of our work, and have delighted and edified vast congregations throughout our country. We need hardly add how earnestly we and our friends, and many others throughout Canada, desire the continuance amongst us of Mr. Punshon's ministrations and counsels. In accordance with the wish of the Conference, Mr. Punshon has appointed as Co-Delegate, our esteemed brother, well known to you, the Reverend Dr. Evans. We respectfully request of you the privilege of electing our President for the next year.

The proceedings of our present Session have been characterized by a harmony and brotherly love, not exceeded, if equalled, during our whole history as a body. We have exchanged fraternal greetings with several kindred Protestant denominations, who hold their Annual Conferences, General Assemblies, and Associations in this city at the same time with ours. We have also been favored with the presence of an honored member of your own body—the Reverend Gervase Smith, A.M.,—who, though he appeared in no representative capacity, and has not felt himself authorized to make any communication on your part,—being simply on a tour of health and friendship,—has given us, and many hundreds of our people, much pleasure and edification by his discourses and addresses. We have taken the liberty to appoint him as our Representative at your next Conference, to inform you in detail what we have stated in general terms, that not the slightest discord interrupts the peace and harmony of our Societies; and the Divine blessing of success and prosperity has crowned our labors in every branch of our Connexional work.

With you, Reverend Fathers and Brethren, we renew our pledge and our prayers for faithful, fervent and unreserved devotion to the great end of our existence as a people, the spread of scriptural holiness over the world.

Signed by order and on behalf of the Conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Canada, assembled at Toronto, this 10th day of June, 1870.

Secretary.

ADDRESS OF THE
CANADA WESLEYAN METHODIST CONFERENCE
TO THE
CONFERENCE OF EASTERN BRITISH AMERICA.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

We gratefully receive and cordially reciprocate the fraternal greetings borne to us in the Address issued at your last Annual Conference.

When we see you "stand in the old paths," and when we hear you summon "all men everywhere to repent," and declare unto them that it is the will of God, even their sanctification, we are not surprised to learn that the pleasure of the Lord so prospers in your hands, that you can annually point to hundreds who give themselves "first to the Lord and then to his Church by the will of God," and boast—"the seal of our Apostleship are these in the Lord!"

We cannot fail to recognize in the continued efficiency of your Educational Institutions, and in the liberal support of your Connexional Funds, the indices of a spiritual Church, as fully alive to her Scriptural obligations as exultant in her Gospel privileges.

We have acceded to the requisition of your College, and have authorised one of our esteemed young graduates, and a member of this Conference, the Rev. John Burwash, M.A., to come to you for a time as a teacher in your Institution.

In the retrospect of the work on our extensive Circuits and Missions, during the year, we rejoice to be able to say concerning the Ministers and Preachers,—“The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned unto the Lord.” The increase on the year is 2,088, making our total membership 64,688.

The emeute at Red River has naturally interfered with the important work of our beloved Missionary, the Rev. George Young; but we glorify God in him, that though he was "in perils oft," as well as in "labors more abundant," he heroically stood his ground, loyally maintaining the honor of the Old Flag, and glorying in the cross of Christ. We would cherish the hope that, as your Province has furnished the Governor, and ours the soldiery, for Manitoba, we may jointly contribute to populate its fertile valleys, to enlist its people for Christ, and to lead them to submit to Him on whose shoulder the Father hath placed the Government.

AND,
Secretary.

The unprovoked and iniquitous invasion of our soil, has served to rouse and intensify the spirit of Christian patriotism, and to evoke the strongest denunciations of the fanatical hordes implicated, and the most unqualified commendation of the brave Volunteers who so promptly met and so easily routed the foe at our Frontier.

We mourn this year the demise of several Brethren beloved, some of whom we should declare had fallen but too prematurely, were it not that we must and can say,—"God is the will of the Lord." One of these, the Rev R. Cooney, D. D., long known and loved amongst you, you will lament with us, though he came down to the grave "like a shock of corn fully ripe."

Our hearts are pained and our work somewhat embarrassed by the unusually large number of our estimable co-laborers, who have felt themselves compelled, through the partial or total failure of their health, to seek a Superannuated or Supernumerary relation. We deplore the practice, so long continued amongst us, on the plea of necessity, of crowding too many services into the Sabbath, causing so severe a strain on the whole system, and contributing largely, we are convinced, to the serious disability of our Ministers and Preachers. We are satisfied, also, that by perpetuating this practice as one of the concomitants of our four or two weeks Circuits, we have been compelled to neglect unduly our centres of population, especially thriving villages, to our denominational injury, inasmuch as other denominations have reaped, but too largely, the harvest of our sowing, by giving the people preaching once or twice each Sabbath.

We are, moreover, moved by the paucity of laborers and by the abundant requirement, obedient to the Master's injunction, to "pray the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers into His harvest."

We have been unusually favored during the Conference now in session, in addition to the counsel and labors of our beloved President, the Rev. W. M. Punshon, M.A., by the visit of the Delegates of the General Conference of the M. E. Church, U. S., the Rev. Drs. Lindsay and Lowrey, and that of the Rev. Gervase Smith, of England, though not officially delegated.

The Sessions of the Conference have been marked by abounding harmony and brotherly love; and the Public Assemblies have been signally hallowed by the baptism of the Holy Ghost. We hope, therefore, to return to our Stations in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

And now, dear Brethren, we bid you adieu, praying that the incoming year may witness the "Beauty of the Lord our God" upon you and upon us, and that He may "establish the work of our hands upon us."

Signed by order and on behalf of the Conference.

A. SUTHERLAND,

Secretary.

ANSWER OF THE

WESLEYAN METHODIST CONFERENCE OF EASTERN BRITISH AMERICA, 1869,

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CANADA CONFERENCE OF 1869.

REV. AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

For your annual and fraternal letter, the reading of which evoked our gratitude to that "God which always causeth us to triumph in Christ and maketh manifest the savor of his knowledge by us in every place," we tender our hearty thanks.

We feel that we are one with you, not only in loyalty to a throne which our venerated founder and his helpers revered and defended, but in the higher and holier relationship of fellow heirs of salvation, and those to whom has been committed "the ministry of reconciliation."

That the Great Head of the Church has favoured you during the year with such signal tokens of his presence and power as have been manifest by the very large increase of your membership, and the augmentation of your ranks by so large a number of candidates for the holy Ministry, is matter of devout thanksgiving. In this we have additional evidence that the earnest form of Christianity to which respectively we are ardently and intelligently attached, shall not become decrepit through age; but under the continued smile of heaven shall renew its strength and be perpetuated so long as the sun and moon endure.

True to the traditions of a church which has always recognized the advantages of sanctified scholarship, we are gratified to learn that your efforts to secure the endowment of your College are likely ere long to be crowned with success.

We sympathize with you in your efforts in behalf of the spiritual interests of the youth of your families and congregations. The importance of securing on the part of those who are in the bloom and vigor of early life, a prompt and intelligent consecration of themselves to the service of God, can not be questioned. To this end the perfection of measures for greater unity and efficiency in your Sabbath School agencies will, we have no doubt, conduce.

The resemblance of our Ecclesiastical system to the earnest Christianity of Apostolic times is perhaps nowhere more apparent than in the deep and unquenchable desire, which has marked alike its ministry and its membership, to send the Gospel to the regions beyond. We are prepared, therefore, to find your interesting and various missions, especially that to the Red River, so well sustained and vigorous.

It affords us pleasure to report that, "according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us," we are striving to spread scriptural holiness over the land.

Never has there been a time when we needed more to have "the whole counsel of God" declared than the present, and we are thankful to be able to answer you that, as in the past, so now, the Gospel trumpet in the hands of our ministers gives no uncertain sound. The doctrine of the cross, with its immediately related themes, is still the burden of our preaching.

In our Sabbath School work we are striving, like yourselves, to make advancement.

Our Educational Institutions are sustained by our people, and are in a state of general efficiency.

Our plans for the extension of the work of God within our borders have been more than ordinarily successful during the year. This is evidenced by the sympathy and support extended by our people generally to the Home Mission Fund of our Conference.

Two young men, having creditably finished their term of probation, have been set apart to the full work of the ministry, by the laying on of the hands of the Presbytery, and have been received into full connexion. Three others have been received on trial.

We have had, as the result of the annual review of the work committed to our care, to mourn over a small decrease in the returns of membership for the year. We have been cheered nevertheless by the fact, that on many a hill of our Zion the Lord has come down like rain upon the new mown grass, enabling us to report 1353 on trial for church membership.

The Conference, now drawing to a close, in its various sessions and services, has been one of deep and hallowed interest, and as again we go forth to our appointed fields of labor, we do so pledging ourselves, each to the other, and all to the Captain of our salvation, "not to know anything among men save Jesus Christ and him crucified."

And now, dear brethren, permit us, in conclusion, to pray in your behalf, that "The God of peace that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, work" ing in you that which is well pleasing in His sight, to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

ADDRESS OF THE
GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE M. E. CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
TO THE
CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH
IN CANADA.

REVEREND AND DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

We greet you in the Lord. May grace and mercy and peace from God the Father and from our Lord Jesus Christ be evermore your rich inheritance.

It was with fraternal delight that we received your official letter, and listened to the ampler oral statements by your honored representative, Rev. Egerton Ryerson, D.D., LL.D., of your affairs and great prosperity. We are filled with the joy of your success. The cause of Methodism every where is the cause of Christ, and being such we cannot but expect its sure and permanent prosperity. What is sometimes defined as the mission of Methodism, namely, the spreading of scriptural holiness over these lands, must still be prosecuted by you and by us until that King of the Jews, so mysteriously coronated on Mount Calvary, shall reign in the declared glory of his power over all these western realms. When we survey our broad States and Territories, and your mighty Provinces, peopled through so many thousands of miles by various tribes of men, our love of souls is kindled into a divine ambition of conquest which claims these empires for our Lord. We are quite convinced that Methodism, in the purity of its doctrines, and the simplicity of its agencies, is especially adapted to the work of evangelizing those new, most marvellously growing nations, and we rejoice to draw closer and closer the bands of brotherhood which pledge us to the common work and gird us to a common vigor. This is an age of catholicity. The little differences in organization and in operation which exist among various bodies of Methodist disciples, to some of which you have alluded in a former letter, are of no account whatever as occasions of antagonizing action, or even of abated love. Indeed, we rejoice to witness that almost universally prevailing tendency to a closer union among all of Christian name, which is the answer to Christ's prayer that all his people might be one, and the assurance that men, more and more appreciating the divine solvent of all national hostilities, will admiringly believe that the Father hath sent him. We love all who love our Lord in sincerity. And yet, brethren, ye are spiritually, and by ecclesiastical genealogy, especially our kinsmen.

We thank you for your kind expressions of sympathy with us in our recent national distresses. It has been pleasant to us even to recall the mournful days of darkness and of blood, when we are thus assured that brotherly regard is often, as is ever the "great Father's comfort," nearer and tenderer than we are aware.

You remind us of our great peculiar duty as marked out by the defining hand of Providence.

We are not unmindful of the large demands upon us, and we shall hope, with God's blessing, to advance aggressively into the regions which are now so strangely re-opened to our efforts, and to aid at least in the spiritual disenfranchisement of their people.

The reviews of our Centenary jubilee have made us, and some of our neighbors, to understand better than before our elements of strength and our resources; and the abundant thank-offerings of our people have greatly strengthened us in the improvement of our Church property, and in the increased endowment of our literary institutions.

We are endeavoring, with each passing quadrennium, to perfect the adaptation of our agencies to the great work before us, cherishing, with prudent conservatism, the spirit and main features of the original Wesleyan Societies, adopting from time to time such variations in form and modified direction of activities as seem to us to promise an increasing efficiency among the ever-changing incidents of our condition.

And now, dear brethren, we invite you in that ever-adorable Name to unite with us in a new series of more vigorous endeavors to push forward the grand conquest. Those achievements of past years of which our fathers love to tell, when pioneer itinerants rode with and before the van of advancing civilization into our western and your northern wilderness, will shame us if we do not maintain their work, and even surpass their zeal.

We say not this in the way of admonition unto you ; but improving the memory of a common past, we would inflame our own hearts by speaking thus to you.

We recommend unto to you our dear brethren and faithful fellow-laborers, who will, by our appointment, and with God's permission, visit you to declare with living voice our living love, and who will make you know more fully our condition. And now may the God of peace sanctify us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS
OF THE
CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN METHODIST CHURCH IN CANADA,
TO THE
MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH UNDER ITS CARE.

TORONTO, JUNE, 1870.

DEARLY BELOVED BRETHREN,—

Before separating, at the close of another Conference, we avail ourselves of the opportunity of again addressing you in words of affectionate greeting and counsel. Rejoicing in the strong affection that unites us, as ministers and people, we rejoice also in the spirit of harmony and brotherly love that prevails throughout our wide Connexion. Believing, more than ever, that the Gospel reveals the only saving provision for our lost race, and that the Holy Ghost is always and everywhere ready to give it saving effect,—feeling our weighty responsibilities as ministers of Christ, and encouraged by the evidences of the continued presence among us of the saving power of Christ,—we consecrate ourselves anew to the great work committed to us, and are encouraged to hope and labour for greater results,—a larger spiritual harvest,—than ever before.

Our present Conference has been one of great harmony and interest from the beginning. Many important matters have been considered, and the general unanimity of the conclusions at which we have arrived, we regard as an evidence of Divine direction. Having this confidence, we can the more trustingly invite the co-operation of the entire membership of the Church, in maintaining the efficiency and extending the operations of our various institutions and agencies.

It has pleased our Divine Master to remove, from the fields of earthly toil to the mansions of celestial reward, no less than eight of our ministerial brethren. These all died in the peace of salvation, while some of them felt rapturous exultation in the near prospect of Heaven. Some of them had filled up a lengthened period of ministerial service, while the sun of others went down when it was yet day, and when the promise of usefulness was brightest. Only Divine omniscience can know exactly when our earthly career may best terminate, whether the purpose of our probation may be best fulfilled at an earlier or later stage of existence. We feel ourselves admonished to be always ready, and to be always abounding in the work of the Lord.

There has been an increase, for the past year, after making up for losses by defection, removal and death, of over two thousand in our church-membership. Even this increase is cause of gratitude and praise to God; but, with all our various agencies, with our vast and inviting field, and with the unfailing promise of the Spirit, we ought to expect a larger increase. While it is our duty by all means, ordinary and special, to save some, the progress of the Gospel depends mainly upon the faithful employment of the ordinary means of grace, and the continual and general usefulness of individual Christians. Special revival services are often found to be indispensable, and are often gloriously successful; and yet it remains generally true, that much more would be accomplished if we looked for saving fruit from every sermon and every service, and if all our people, to the extent of their respective opportunities, were seeking to become the means of converting sinners from the error of their way. If all the members of the Church were constant in attendance upon every means of grace; if all were constant in prayer for the outpouring of the Spirit, and preaching to all around by holy tempers and lives; if each would commence to improve every opportunity of inviting neglectors to visit the House of God, or children to attend the Sabbath-school, or of speaking a word in season to careless or anxious spirits; and if, at the same time, ministers and people would look for every service to be a revival service—the spirit of revival would rise and extend, until, like an all-prevailing flood, it would bear down and sweep away all opposition, and leave behind the abounding fruits of salvation. Could we but secure this one thing, the universal activity of Christians in zealous endeavours after individual usefulness, the progress of religion would be continuous and general, and accumulating influences would accelerate the extension of Christ's Kingdom.

We are happy to inform you that there has been a handsome increase in all our Connexional Funds. While financial progress, in the work of the Church, is manifestly only secondary to spiritual progress, it may be made immensely conducive to spiritual progress; and it is necessary to the maintenance of our various spiritual agencies. When faithfully employed for God, the funds of the Church are spiritual and holy, and will be liberally sustained by all true friends of the cause of Christ. We would, in particular, recommend increased liberality at the time of the collections for the Contingent Fund, by which the poorer and weaker parts of our work are sustained, and many thousands of the destitute supplied with the means of grace. Allow us, also, again affectionately to direct your attention to the circumstances of our College at Cobourg.

Dependent now entirely upon its friends, we doubt not that the intelligence and public spirit of the Wesleyan community will adequately estimate the value—the necessity—of such an institution, and will secure for it a position not merely free from danger, but of assured prosperity. We have not, in this young country, many of those wealthy friends of a Christian education who, as in Britain and the United States, have generously given princely endowments to colleges, and thus put them at once in possession of means for the largest efficiency. While extremely grateful for some noble gifts to our College, our dependence is chiefly upon the sympathy of our people generally—upon those who cannot give their thousands; we thankfully accept their cordial contributions according to their ability, thus also securing a more extended patronage and a more general sympathy. The College is maintained in the interest of Christianity itself, and may be made, in many respects, a great blessing to us as a people.

The wide-spread enthusiasm of the present day, in the pursuit of athletic sports and games, is not only dangerously excessive, but especially threatens to lead away many of the youth of the churches. While this "Muscular Christianity," as it is absurdly miscalled, does not provide the best means for the healthy development of physical strength, it extensively causes the neglect of mental improvement, by occupying the whole leisure time of many; and it not only leads to associations unfavorable to the religious feelings, but also is often connected with the odious and ruinous vice of gambling. While Christ's religion enjoins cheerfulness, and does not condemn innocent recreation, it imperatively prohibits whatever is inconsistent with the spirit of prayer, or tends to alienate the mind from serious subjects. There is also urgent need for all Christians to be on their guard against most of the novels and other fictitious literature of the day. A passion for fictitious reading is always fatal to intellectual improvement, and destructive of healthful and holy affections.

The present Conference has been greatly enlivened and edified by the visits and addresses of deputations from other Methodist bodies, and from other Christian denominations. We have had assurances of the continued fraternal affection of the great Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States, while fraternal addresses from other Methodist bodies in this country have caused us to feel that there is a growing spirit of kindness and brotherly love between them and us, and to hope that the day is not distant when the Methodists shall be "one people all over the world." It is indeed one of the most hopeful of the signs of the times, that evangelical denominations are drawing nearer to each other, and feeling more and more that they are working in a common cause. While a corrupt system, full of antichristian error, is giving indication of its approaching fall, by desperately proclaiming itself infallible, let all Christ's people more than ever depend on an infallible Bible and a saving gospel. We know, dear brethren, that you hail with delight the growing love between Christians of different names, and that you will always manifest a catholicity of spirit towards all lovers of the Lord Jesus.

Finally, dear brethren, let us give ourselves more fully to the work of God. The conversion of sinners and the progress of holiness in the Church, are the only hope of the world. Vital religion recommends the Gospel, puts superstition to shame, and overthrows infidelity. It is health and salvation for time and eternity. It blesses the individual, the family, and the state, and multiplies all kinds of good to the sons of men. Christ's cause is the cause of causes. All-comprehensive and all-sufficient, it offers salvation to the world. In this cause we as ministers, and you as co-workers, are engaged. Let us love it more, pray more for it, and spend and be spent in its service. What might not one year of universal prayer and zeal accomplish! We go forth from our Conference once more, and return to labor among you for God and for souls. May we come to you in the fullness of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ! May the sweet savour of the knowledge of Christ be made manifest among you in every place!

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost be with you all.

Signed by order and in behalf of the Conference,

WM. MORLEY PUNSHON, M.A.,

PRESIDENT,

ALEXANDER SUTHERLAND,

SECRETARY.

APPENDIX E.
EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

REPORT
TREASURERS OF VICTORIA COLLEGE.

It affords the Treasurers much pleasure to be able to state that the attendance at the College in all the departments of learning, as may be seen by referring to the Calendar, has been such as to leave no room for any one to suppose that the College is no longer a "necessity." The time has not yet come for us to relax our efforts in securing for our young men the advantages of a thorough practical training in all the departments of a superior education, and upon sound religious principles. Every year's work produces additional evidence of the wisdom and importance of the position taken by our Fathers, in establishing an Institution which for nearly forty years has been maintained by our people, through "evil and good report."

The financial difficulties, however, from the beginning, during all those years, with but few exceptions, have often pressed so severely and painfully upon the Treasurers, and those more immediately connected with them, in devising ways and means to meet heavy liabilities, as to keep them in a state of suspense, and painful apprehension. For the last two years the feelings have been greatly intensified by the Government withdrawing the assistance which for more than quarter of a century the Institution had been receiving from the Provincial Treasury. This unexpected and sudden act of the Government, reduced at once the annual income of the College more than fifty per cent. This has rendered it necessary for the present Treasurers heavily to tax their credit, and draw upon their private resources to keep the Institution alive. The embarrassment produced by not having sufficient funds placed at their disposal to meet current expenses and unavoidable contingencies, and from being left to their own ingenuity to secure the amount necessary each quarter to meet the just demands of the Professors, and other persons who had claims upon them, has been very trying; and would have been sufficiently grave to discourage them altogether, had it not been that they had good reasons for believing that their brethren, both ministerial and lay, feel that we cannot recede from the position which we have now taken in this matter without incurring serious loss and positive disgrace. We also have taken encouragement from what we believe to be the case, that our friends are determined to prevent this; therefore they are paying as speedily as possible, the amount of their subscriptions to the contemplated endowment fund; and thus giving us good ground to hope that the College, before long, will be put out of reach of pecuniary embarrassment for all time to come. Had the success of the circuit meetings which were to be held for raising the endowment been equal to that of the District Meetings, the work would have been done; but we regret to say that the arrangements for Circuit Meetings, and such a canvass for subscriptions as was to follow, are not as satisfactory as could be desired. In the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, we have 370 Circuits and Missions, from each of which we ought to have received returns; but up to the present we have heard only from 113 in whole, and 37 in part. From some of those wholly reported, the amount is much smaller than was expected. On our books we have a little more than $71,000, of what we trust may be regarded as reliable subscriptions; probably this may be made larger by the returns which we hope to receive at Conference. Of the above sum, some $21,000 have been paid, the most of which is invested in debentures.—There is also a mortgage transferred by David Torrance, Esq., of Montreal, for $2,000, upon a good property near the town of Cobourg; the acceptance of which makes his subscription $800 more than it at first was intended to be. It, however, must be expected that while these arrangements are going on, the Treasurers are driven to the necessity of incurring liabilities which will have in some way or other to be met in order to maintain the Institution in a state of efficiency. It may be seen by comparing the balance-sheet of the present year with those of past years, there is very little difference in the receipts from the ordinary sources of income. Most of the students who enter the College come upon scholarships which are obtained from parties holding them. for a mere trifle, thus making our tuition fees of very little importance. This, however, will be at an end after a few more years have passed away.

In the receipts from ordinary sources there are some items which may be made much larger in future than they are now. For instance, the December collection ought to increase with the increase of our congregations and the wealth of our people. Also the bonus given us by the Queen Insurance Company on the Connexional and Ministerial property that has been assured with them, may be made a large source of income if our Ministers who own houses and have valuable Libraries, &c., would insure in this Company, as they are in duty bound to do, if they should insure at all, and at the same time use their influence with the Trustees of our church property to do the same. Let this be done, and let the Conference direct, which we think it will cheerfully do, the December collection to be given to the College for current expenses, subject to the charge for Conference Students; then will we try to make the income for the next two or three years sufficient to sustain the Institution until a portion of the contemplated endowment is secured, thus giving as much time as possible for completing existing arrangements. From the account which we now present, it will be seen that an income of $8,000 per annum will enable us to live free from debt until the endowment is completed.

In conclusion, we may be allowed to say that if all who are officially connected with the College, and also all those to whom its interests are committed, will only act unitedly, everyone doing his duty, all our difficulties will soon be overcome, and the Institution will be put into circumstances of greater safety, and be found for all time to come more prosperous than it ever has been.

We also annex the report of the agent for the past year.

The amount of subscriptions found reported in July last was $54,000. The list has now reached $70,000. The balance sheet herewith presented, (which contains the transactions from the commencement of the effort,) shows $16,053.22 paid to the Treasurers, and $2,800 held as temporary investment, being a mortgage and other securities for that amount, bearing interest at 6 per cent, paid by David Torrance, Esq., of Montreal, for his original subscription of $2,000, and an addition of $800,—and $191.06 in the Agent's hands.

The subscriptions above mentioned, amounting to $70,000, have been received from 140 Circuits, of which 113 only have been canvassed, and some of these only partially. The whole number of Circuits, exclusive of those in the Red River, Saskatchewan, and British Columbia Districts, is 379; leaving 266, or more than two-thirds, yet to be canvassed.

A large part of the time of your Agent has been occupied in collecting due subscriptions. And the larger amount to fall due in the coming year will call for yet more attention.

The arrangements made through the Financial District Meeting, and District College Meetings, for the canvass of Circuits, have been carried out to a very small extent; and it does seem that special agency will have to be relied upon for the completion of the canvass.

From these and other considerations, there appears to be urgent necessity for the employment of more agents; and it is respectfully suggested that the services of at least two additional men be secured, so that both parts of the work may be pushed forward with vigor.

Among the reasons for this course are the following:—

1. It is desirable to reach the whole ground before the effect of the earlier meetings shall be lost.

2. The more rapid increase of the list,—being published,—would give an eclat to the movement which would tell in its favor.

3. The money would be so much sooner invested, and yielding income.

4. The College is running into debt at a very serious rate; and this plan appears to your agent to offer the only hope of preventing the creation of such a debt as it will be impossible to liquidate by income. And yet the honor of the connexion is pledged to the carrying on of the institution, both to Scholarship holders and to those whose money has been accepted for this Endowment.

5. It would cost no more.

Your agent feels no doubt that, with united counsels and action, and increasing agency, the work undertaken will be brought to a successful completion; and our due share of influence in the education of the youth of the country, with all the benefits following, be preserved.
